OVER A THOUSAND JAILED

WHOLESALE ARRESTS OF CHINESE BY JAPANESE OFFICIALS.

For Alleged Infractions of Landing Regulations on the Island of Formosa.

Japan is having trouble in Formosa with Chinese immigrants who are said to have landed on the island contrary to the treaty regulations and without the certificates required from Chinese officials. As this new difficulty of Japan over Chinese immigrants seems to have many points in common with that of Hawaii's trouble over Japanese immigrants, the dispatch concerning it is published in full as a matter of interest:

Yacoma, Wash., Aug. 30. — News comes by steamer from Hongkong that over 1000 Chinese were arrested in Formosa by the Japanese authorities late in July and thrown into jail. The cause of their arrest is given by Japanese officers as the infraction by the Chinese of the landing regulations published in the twenty-ninth year of Meiji. According to these regulations Chinese are not allowed to land except at the four ports of Kelung, Tamsui, Amping and Tkao, and they must be provided with certificates issued by Chinese officials at ports from which they came. The Japanese claim that the Chinese came from Amoy and Canton in junks and landed on the island at various convenient points, thus violating the regulations.

It is stated in China that, as a matter of fact, these arrests are the outcome of the recent riots at Taipei, capital of Formosa. Two months ago Chinamen about Taipei refused to register as Japanese subjects on certain days and to permit their queues to be cut off, as the new Japanese regulations provided.

They attacked the Japanese quarter of Taipei. A battle ensued and over 100 were killed. It was claimed at the time that the Chinese of Formosa were abetted by rich Chinese of Amoy and Canton.

The recent landing of 1000 men from those ports corroborated the suspicions which were then entertained. The Japanese have thus put the Chinese in jail to prevent their joining the native Chinese rebels, who are still trying to drive their Japanese masters out of the island.

HAWAII.

(By ANNE M. PRESCOTT.)

God bless Hawaii.
 O flawless Pearl, turned out By Nature's cunning, lavish hand!
 So rich and fresh, so pure, As passeth man to understand,
 In ocean vast, this unique clime— An fabric wondrous, for all time—
 God bless Hawaii!

God bless Hawaii.
 The rainbow-land of promise sure and true—
 A Queen Mab's warp and woof all through and through—
 Of sea and sky and air, a dower royal;
 None can but love and praise,
 Then bend the knee in adoration loyal.
 God bless Hawaii.

God bless Hawaii.
 Now let us all unite and sing,
 "Make Jesus King, make Jesus King!"
 And every child its glowing tribute bring,
 To, on the altar of Hawaii, fling;
 Till, high as Tantalus the note shall ring—
 "Make Jesus King, make Jesus King!"
 Then will God bless Hawaii.
 Makapala-by-the-sea, August 31, 1897.
